New Beginners classes Winter 2012

Honors is offering two New Beginners classes which will each meet once per week. The evening class will be taught by Alene Friedman on Tuesday evenings from 6:30-8:30 PM starting on January 10th. The afternoon class will be taught by Mike Kallman on Wednesday afternoons from 1:00PM to 3:00PM starting on January 11th. Most weeks the same material will be taught in both classes so if you can't make your regular class you can plan to attend the other session.

The cost is $37 per session you attend, or you may take advantage of either of two discount options.

1) Purchase the entire New Beginners Series of lessons (13 classes) plus two review sessions and two supervised play sessions (a $600+ value) for $400.

2) Purchase a class card which entitles you to eleven lessons for $375. This card is valid for a year from the date of the purchase and is used only for classes you actually attend. If you miss classes and don't use up the card in beginners the remainder can be used for advanced beginners or intermediate classes.

You may pay in cash or by check.

You do not need to pre-register. Just show up at Honors a few minutes before your class is scheduled to begin. Please feel free to call us with any questions. The teachers at Honors love bridge and want to make learning the game a terrific experience for you. Once you have learned the basics of the game you may partake in a full range of bridge activities seven days a week.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU SOON.
